

HISTORIC EAST COAST

New York City & Boston

Your group will walk in the footsteps of Colonial heroes like George Washington and Paul Revere, and see how the iconic cities of New York and Boston have changed over time. New York and Boston are the perfect pair for students interested in colonial history, popular culture, and fun.

Trip Highlights

- Your students will live history in a tenement building and hear the story of an Irish immigrant family.
- Sit down with your fellow chaperones and students to enjoy a delicious New England-style lobster bake at the Gloucester House.
- Board the historic U.S.S. Constitution and watch your students reenact life on the high seas.
- Take a stroll (or pedal) through Central Park and be surrounded by trees in America's most densely populated city.
